

2013 AND BEYOND DRAFTING ISSUES – 16 WILL AND TRUST CLAUSES
TO ADDRESS OPPORTUNITY, UNCERTAINTY AND FLEXIBILITY

	Starting on Page:
Introduction and Explanation	1
Issue 1: The Marital Deduction Provisions	1
Clause 1A: Marital Share Outright to Surviving Spouse.	3
Clause 1B: Marital Share Outright to Surviving Spouse with Disclaimer Path to a Trust for the Benefit of the Surviving Spouse for Life; then to Children in Three Increments at Ages 25, 30 and 35.	4
Clause 1C: Allow the Executor to Exercise Discretion to Determine the Optimal Funding of the Marital and Credit Shelter Portions of the Estate. The So-Called “Clayton QTIP Clause”.	8
Clause 1D: Marital Deduction Share Using General Power of Appointment Trust.	9
Clause 1E: Marital Share Using Qualified Terminable Interest Property Trust (QTIP Trust).	11
Issue 2: The Credit Shelter Trust Provisions (aka By-Pass Trust; aka Unified Credit Trust, aka Exemption Equivalent Trust).	14
Clause 2A: Create the Credit Shelter Trust for the Exclusive Benefit of the Surviving Spouse While Alive, with Remainder to Children.	15
Clause 2B: Create the Credit Shelter Trust for the Benefit of the Family Group Including the Surviving Spouse and the Children of the Testator – Distributions in the Discretion of the Trustee.	17
Clause 2C: Create the Credit Shelter Share for the Benefit of the Children – Outright if Age 35; Otherwise in Trust until the Children Reach Designated Ages – 3 Increments of Principal Payments.	19

Clause 2D: Create the Credit Shelter Share for the Benefit of the Children – Outright Distributions to Children.	22
Clause 2E: Impose a Limit (Maximum) on the Credit Shelter Gift and a Minimum on the Marital Deduction Funding to Assure a “Reasonable” Division between the Two Shares of the Estate.	24
Issue 3: Portability Provisions.	24
Clause 3A: Portability of the Deceased Spousal Unused Exemption – Mandatory Election by the Executor (or Personal Representative) of a Will	25
Clause 3B: Portability of the Deceased Spousal Unused Exemption – Mandatory Election by the Trustee of a Trust	26
Clause 3C: Portability of the Deceased Spousal Unused Exemption –Discretionary Election by the Executor (or Personal Representative) of a Will	27
Clause 3D: Portability of the Deceased Spousal Unused Exemption –Discretionary Election by the Trustee of a Trust	27
Issue 4: Generation-Skipping Transfers	28
Clause 4A: GST Marital and Family Trust Provisions, Including Reverse QTIP Language, and Administrative Provisions	29
DISCLAIMER	38
Bonus: 2012 Estate and Tax Client Planning Letter	39